The Obelisk.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Cleopatra's needle now in the lower bay will be landed here with appropriate ceremonies. The programme for unshipping and erecting has not been completed; but the Masonic order in all parts of the country has expressed a desire to share in the performance. The unshipping will be accomplished by the same means employed in placing it on board on the Dessouk steamer. It will be first lowered ... dry dock and then the obelisk will be slid upon two floats, one under each end. The machinery made in Trenton last fall and used at Alexandria for lowering the column will be employed again for its erection. The site selected for obelisk is in front of the Metropolitan museum of art. This morning the steamer Dessoug, having the obelisk in her hold, steamed up North river, and anchored off 23rd street, where she will probably be for two days.

Increase of Utah's Population.

SALT LAKE, July 20.—Full census returns give Utah a population in round numbers of 144,000, an increase of sixty five per cent. in ten years. At the last April conference, the Mormons reported a total Mormon population of 112,000, leaving 32,000 non-Mormons. Since 1870 the increase in non-Mormon population is two hundred per cent. The increase in Mormon population is forty-five per cent.

Victoria's Whereabouts.

WASHINGTON, July 20—Colonel Hatch sends the following from San Francisco: The latest is the hostiles have taken many horses from the ranches near Chihuahua, swinging around that city a circuit of about thirty miles. Arrada, an old Indian fighter who has fifty men, says the most hostiles are forty miles southwest of Galijos, and the same distance north of Chihuahua. They go into Galijos to trade. They are not killing people. I think they will cross below Runtan. Five Indians crossed July 4th. Capt. Brinkerhoff is looking for them from El Paso.

The Great Curiosity.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Last evening Dr. Tanner received a telegram from Jolick & Blaisdell, of Chicago, offering a thousand dollars weekly to deliver one hundred lectures after he has finished his fast. No reply to the offer has yet been made.

Earthquake in New Hampshire.

MILFORD, N. H. July 20. A smart shock of earthquake was felt here at seven o'clock, causing buildings to tremble considerably.

CONTOOCOOK, N. H., July 20. There was a sharp shock of earthquake about seven this evening. The motion was rapid to the south with eastern tendency. The shock lasted several seconds with a perceptible sound.

MANCHESTER, N. H., July 20. An earthquake of considerable violence visited this city shortly before seven o'clock.

Chicago Jockey Club.

CHICAGO, July 20. The first summer trotting meeting of the Chicago Trotting and Jockey club began to day. The weather was beautiful and the attendance 4,000 to 5,000. The sport was fine and contests were so close that at eight o'clock one of the three races was finished, although twelve heats had been trotted. The postponed races will be trotted off beginning at noon to-morrow. The great feature of the day was the magnificent speed of Munroe Chief who won his race in spite of every attempt to pocket him.

The first event was "Spirit of the Turf" stakes, open to all stallions, $200 entrance, with a $1,000 added, 65 per cent. to the first horse, 20 to the second, 15 to the third.

Political Gossip.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The Times' New York special says it is rumored Kelly and Tammany have formed a secret alliance with the republicans to control local patronage.

The Times' Portland special says a careful canvass convinces him the republicans will carry the state by a small majority, both houses of the legislature and four of the five congressmen.

The Times of New York York says Collector Merritt has already received intimations that his resignation would aid the campaign.

Jay Gould freely expresses the belief that Hancock and English will be elected.

Convention of Colored Men.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., July 20.—The first convention of colored men ever held in this state met to-day. One hundred and twenty-six delegates were present. John G. Jones was made chairman. The resolutions strongly set forth the duty of the colored men toward the republicans who fed and protected them and resentful unfaltering devotion to the republican party. It ... the republican candidates as stat...

men and ... They say whereas it has been charged and ... that this convention has been called in the interest of the democratic party, therefore be it

Resolved, We disclaim any intention or purpose to give aid or comfort to the democracy, either by thought, deed, or action, but on the contrary, recognize in it a life long enemy to the negro, seeking without power to perpetrate his degradation, and, since out of power to hinder and retard his elevation. As it has not yet exhibited that repentance which inspires confidence in parties as well as individuals, we will continue to watch it with suspicion and dread it as a deadly poison.

Pending action on the report, the convention adjourned to convene in the morning. Governor Cullom and Secretary of State Harlan spoke to the convention to-night.

Railroad Accident.

HARTFORD, CONN., July 20—A freight train on the Connecticut valley road was thrown from the track. Conductor Bacon was killed, Engineer Frank Stillman, fireman and Wm. Stanton was severely injured.

Simple of Heart, Great of Mind.

CHICAGO, July 20.—A Chicago gentleman out of politics was in Mentor recently and met Garfield. He writes to the Journal that he is a gentleman, simple of heart and great of mind as Abraham Lincoln was, and the people will make no mistake by electing him. I wish every reader of the Journal and every citizen of the United States could know Garfield as he is. They would glory in electing him president, knowing that he is not only truly an honest man but a truly great and good man.

Edison's Competitor.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The Inter-Ocean's Washington special says Edison will be obliged to enter the list at the patent office and defend his right to the quadruplex, one of his most valuable inventions, used in telegraphy. One H. C. Nicholson, of Kentucky, claims he is really the inventor of the vital principles, and asked that the patent to Edison be revoked. The case will be considered, and if found sustained by the appearance of equity, a hearing will be granted.

The Fast Man.

NEW YORK, July 20.—At noon to-day Dr. Tanner was in good condition. There is no variation in pulse or temperature. He took the customary drive this morning, drank freely of spring water and answered six letters.

Spotted Tail Dissatisfied.

WASHINGTON, July 20—In cabinet meeting to-day, the interior department submitted information that Spotted Tail is becoming dissatisfied, had removed his children from the training school where with several hundred others, they had been sent to be educated and his course had led to serious disapproval on the part of the rest of the tribe who are anxious to be educated, and have appealed to the president to depose Spotted Tail and appoint a new chief.

Asking for Surveys.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20. The chamber of commerce at the regular quarterly meeting to-day adopted a resolution asking the congressional delegation to advocate liberal appropriations for extending the work of the United States geographical and topographical surveys west of the hundredth meridian and for the marine survey of the coast of California to Alaska.

FOREIGN.

Preparing for War.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 20. Extensive preparations are making in case of war with Greece. Troops, artillery and ammunition are being sent to Salonica, Vilo and Peresand. Orders have been telegraphed to the provinces that recruits shall be collected and forwarded to the several depots with all available speed. Albanians are being encouraged to prepare for resistance and are being supplied with arms and ammunition. The Albanian league has resolved to employ 150,000 piastres of its revenue for the fortification of Metzovo, 125,000 piastres for the fortification of Pervesa and 80,000 piastres for the fortification of Arta.

Our Exchange.

LONDON, July 20.—The rise in prices in American securities is due to a considerable degree of apprehension that the state of exchanges will soon necessitate gold shipments to New York. It is understood that the rate of exchange between Paris and New York now admits of gold shipments, and it is reported that considerable bullion received from the last steamer, was bought in open market here for export.

American Skill.

WIMBLEDON, July 20. The Americans are still prominent. Brown in this morning's shooting made thirty-two consecutive bull's-eyes. The Americans will capture the most of the prizes.

In "any rifle association" cup competition, Halford and Baker, of the English team, both tied Brown's score, each scoring fifty, the highest possible, and making three bull's eyes in three extra shots. Hyde, during the afternoon shooting, made sixteen and Baker, ... scored forty nine in the contest for the Arthur prize, twenty-two consecutive bull's eyes.

In the contest for the Arthur prize, Scott scored fifty, the highest possible, Fisher forty-seven, and Hyde forty-seven.

In the contest for the ladies prize Joyat made the highest score possible namely, thirty-five.

In the Duke of Cambridge prize Humphrey is first so far with a score of sixty.

Pursuit—A State Question.

MADRID, July 20. A correspondent says when Queen Marie Christian came to Spain she only retained one Austrian attendant, a young and able physician, who insisted at the end of June on account of her majesty's health, on a transfer of the court to Lagranja, directly after the cortes separated. The Spanish doctors hardly concealed their jealousy of the foreigner who now advises the king to prolong the stay of the court at Lagranja until after the queen's confinement, which is expected in August, when the heat in Madrid will be very great. The senior Spanish physician resigned, and others would have followed his example had not the king declined to receive his resignation. The opinion of the Madrid surgeons is that with care the heat might not be dangerous. Premier Conovas Del Costello shares this opinion. He considers Lagranja palace insufficient for the state ceremonies attending the birth of an heir to the throne. The Austrian physician sturdily defends his views. The queen prefers to remain at Lagranja.

Germany to Educate Turkish Warriors.

BERLIN, July 20.—It is stated on good authority that several officers of the general staff, who are ready to go to Constantinople to reorganize the military institutions of Turkey, will leave the German service; but will be allowed to resume their present rank after performing their task in Turkey. The affair will be private, and the government will not be responsible therefor.

LONDON, July 20.—In the house of lords this evening Earl Granville, replying to a question, said the application of the porte for German officers to assist in the reorganization of the Turkish forces was made five months ago, and that the German government had assured England that Germany cordially acts with European concert.

JOHN B. ROUAT, Chairman.
HENRY WARD, Secretary.

Governor Tabor has increased his stock in the Chrysolite from 25,000 to 47,000 shares. The mine workers are also putting all their money in it.

The Leadville Democrat says the democracy of Leadville has three candidates for congress. They are J. Y. Marshall, C. J. Thomas and A. W. Rucker.

General Garfield's strength arises from the fact that he has always acted upon his convictions, and that his convictions represent the best intelligence of the country.

The result of the recent census has suggested many interesting comparisons. The Dubuque Times states the city of Dubuque now casts as large a vote as the three states of Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota cast in 1836. In 1876 these three great states cast a vote of nearly 700,000.

The inhabitants of Alpine in the interest of so-called honest labor drove out two Chinamen who attempted to settle there. We presume the same good citizens would welcome the arrival of a dance house proprietor, a vender of miserable whisky, or a faro bank proprietor. People do differ so about what is for the interest of the laboring man.

The Denver papers make more rapid progress than the city. The Tribune is about to move into more elegant quarters, which is splendidly equipped for its great business. The News has just bought a double cylinder press capable of printing an edition of 5,000 an hour. We gladly note these improvements in the establishments of our big brothers. Denver and the state has reason to be proud of her great morning dailies.

The greenback mania had its start and most powerful growth in Indiana. It is pleasant to think that it has now died out. General Harrison in a recent speech at Indianapolis thus alluded to it: "In former campaigns we have had divisions in our own ranks upon political questions which were at issue. We have none to say. Indiana's plan has given place to John Sherman's plans. Theories of finance have vanished before magnificent demonstrations of the ability of the national treasury to resume specie payments and make the dollar of the laboring men equal to the dollar of the bondholder. In former campaigns we often witnessed discouraged farmers and laborers out of employment; but in this canvass the audience assembled to hear you will be happy and prosperous. Barns all over Indiana are laughing in gleeful recognition of the goodness of Providence to our people. Labor is everywhere employed, and our people to-day are conspicuously contented and happy, and they recognize that much of this has come from the wise administration of our national finances by the republican party."

Capital is as timid as a maiden. The effect of the Little Pittsburg fraud shows this. It has injured the mining interests of Colorado beyond computation. Nearly all prospect holes about Leadville, in which eastern parties were interested, are now unworked. It was the vigorous prospecting that made Leadville grow so rapidly. That to a large extent has now ceased. The same may be said of the Gunnison country. Poor prospectors are owning two or three good prospects, but have no money to develop them. They want to sell one to use the proceeds to develop the others. But the buyers are few. Considering the immense influx of capitalists there would have been in Colorado at this time, anxious to invest in mines, had it not been for the Little Pittsburg fraud, it is safe to say that Chaffee & Co., have put back Colorado's mineral development at least a year.

Charles Loring, in a letter to the Longmont Ledger, in attempting the defense of others, unjustly attacks Charles Sumner. He says:

Now the fact is that Mr. Sumner never was out of the republican party, he died and was buried as one, but for the reason I have given and similar ones, the legislature of his native state, old Massachusetts, passed a vote of censure upon his conduct.

Mr. Loring ought to have been intelligent enough to know that Massachusetts before Sumner's death recognized the injustice of the vote of censure and that the legislature expunged the resolution. Massachusetts, in this act, admitted that she was wrong and Sumner was right. We may add that this vote of censure was not passed for any of the reasons given by Mr. Loring, but because of a resolution he introduced into the senate in regard to striking off the flags of the regiments in the regular army the names of the battles of the rebellion. It was an effort toward reconciliation.

The democrats have nominated Lyman Trumbull for governor of Illinois. They did this with a view of obtaining republican votes. Senator Douglass in 1858 gave an opinion of Trumbull which democrats might well consider. He then said: "Trumbull, too, was one of our cotemporaries. He was born and raised in old Connecticut, was bred a Federalist but, removing to Georgia, turned Nullifier, when nullification was popular, and as soon as he disposed of his clocks and wound up his business, migrated to Illinois, turned politician and lawyer here, and made his appearance in 1841 as a member of the legislature. He became noted as the author of the scheme to repudiate a large proportion of the state debt of Illinois, which, if successful, would have brought infamy and disgrace upon the fair escutcheon of our glorious state. The odium attached to that measure consigned him to oblivion for a time. I helped to do it. I walked into a public meeting in the hall of the house of representatives and replied to his repudiation speeches, and resolutions were passed over his head denouncing repudiation and asserting the moral and legal obligation of Illinois to pay every dollar of the debt she owed and every bond that bore her seal. Trumbull's malignity has followed me ever since I thus defeated his infamous scheme."

Free Ballot and Free Speech.

The democratic party demands a free ballot, but the south says that its population shall only be free to vote the democratic ticket. The papers all through the south are full of threats against republicans if they shall attempt to carry on a vigorous campaign for Garfield and Arthur. Yesterday in our dispatches, a South Carolina paper warned republicans not to make a canvass and ensure the democratic party a majority equal to the total voting population of the county. Another paper, the Greenville, South Carolina, News, has uttered similar views. It says:

Mr. Spier, who acted as chairman of the first radical meeting of the approaching campaign, and his political associates Wilson Cook and others—would do well to take advice. The white men of the state desire a peaceful summer and autumn. They are wearied of heated political strife. If they are forced to vigorous action, it will be exceedingly vigorous—perhaps unpleasantly so.

* * * * * * *

We have tested kindness and conciliation for four years; some think too much. If they are proved to have failed the opposite means will be experimented with.

* * * * * * *

The only conceivable cause for their attempts to renew almost a forgotten strife and subject the state to a renewal of the scenes of 1876, is pure malice, for they know that they cannot win. Those who cause the trouble will suffer most from it. Bear that in mind, persons colored and white skinned. The contests sought to be forced upon us are not to decide questions of policy or principle between opposite political parties. They are struggles by the real people of the state for her life, and for the protection of individual property, life and honor, and general civilization, during which society is demoralized, and material and other interests suffer. Repetition of these every two years will not be submitted to. The veracious Wilson Cook, in a somewhat spish and grotesque manner, revealed the spirit that really animates himself and his masters, from whom he has recently been drawing inspirations at the north. His abuse of the two senators, and wild advice to emigrate, show an impotent desire to injure the south by some means or any means. We reiterate our advice to the veracious and reflective Cook, and the argumentative and profound Speir, to be careful how they go, and not stir up the animals too freely. They have teeth and claws.

The animus of this is plain. Any man who attempts to lead the republican party and carry on a vigorous campaign in South Carolina will be treated as an outlaw. To show democratic consistency, we quote the following from the Cincinnati platform.

The right to a free ballot is the right preservative of all rights, and must and shall be maintained in every part of the United States.

Order of Procession.

The order of the democratic procession during the campaign may put down as follows:

Hancock.
English, an Indiana Copperhead.
War Democrats.
Tissue-Ballot Rascals from South Carolina.
Bulldozers from Mississippi.
Soft Money Men.
Hard Money Men.
No Money Men.
Free Traders.
Protectionists.
Deluded Northern Doughfaces.
Rebel Claimants.
Miscellaneous Factions.
Ku-Klux Velarans.
Picked Squad of Confederate Brigadiers.
Turncoats.
The Hungry Squad.
Silly People.
Hybrids.

The procession will not make a good appearance. It is too much of a hash to be popular.] Denver Tribune.

Political Inspiration.

For twelve years Hancock had been a candidate for the democratic nomination without attracting any great amount of attention, when a sudden spasm of "inspiration" seized the delegates at Cincinnati, which revealed Hancock as the one great leader capable of marching the unterrified to victory. Political "inspiration" is a big thing.—[Memphis Avalanch.

From the Woods.

We believe that Garfield and Hancock were nominated by the two great parties for president. We have heard so little here concerning the contest, that we have almost forgotten.[Elk Mountain Bonanza.

Grant for Garfield.

In the interview which a Tribune correspondent had with Grant last Saturday the General stated very positively that he was for Garfield, and that Garfield was the man who should be elected president of the United States. [Denver Tribune.

Some Rare Autographs

An extensive sale of autographs, which took place in Leipzig, contained some English specimens of no small interest. Among others was a letter from Queen Elizabeth, in her own handwriting beautifully clean and neat, it fetched 300 marks A letter from John Locke to Thoyrard, in Paris, sold for 161 marks It was observed that the prices for autographs of musicians have risen considerably since the great auction of two years ago A manuscript of Haydn, which then sold for 90 marks, has now fetched 275 marks, a manuscript of Schubert realized 130, one of Beethoven, 115, and a letter by C M. Van Weber, 140 marks A letter of Calvin, formerly of the Pericourt collection, realized 100 marks a small billet of Frederick the Great, which was much fought over, was knocked down for 79 marks, one of Voltaire for 119 a Goethe for 70 marks 95 pfennigs, and two Schillers for 90 and 181 marks Two letters of Lessing realized unusually high prices, 309 and 281 marks [The Athenæum

The Crown Prince of Germany.

The Prussian crown prince is a wise and thrifty gentleman It is related that the officers of a regiment which is annually inspected by him have been in the habit of inviting him to luncheon after parade. Last year the entertainment was of the most elaborate and costly kind The prince would touch nothing, and even refused the wine offered to him, observing that "he only drank champagne on extraordinary occasions The reproof told, and this year when the prince entered the guardsmen's mess room after the inspection he found only a modest repast of sandwiches, light claret, and beer awaiting him. He at once sat down, partook heartily of the frugal fare, and, with the observation "This is as it should be among comrades," produced his meerchaum, lit it, and remained for over an hour, smoking and chatting with his entertainers in the most friendly and unceremonious manner imaginable

E. F. STEPHENSON, Manager, "GAZETTE."

ABE ROBERTS, Manager, "MOUNTAINEER."

On and after August 15th Leadville will have the letter carrier system.

The new water mains on Pike's Peak avenue and Dale street were finished yesterday.

Mr. McMillien, of the Central hotel, offers his property for sale in this morning's GAZETTE. The property is a valuable one situated on Tejon street, nearly opposite the GAZETTE office.

The Denver Telephone company do not seem to be pushing their work very rapidly. The line was completed to Manitou and connection made with the hotels some time ago and there the matter rests.

We learn that Mr. Irving Howbert and Mr. A. R. Howbert have bought a sixth interest in the Bonanza mine situated in Kerby creek mining district, Saguache county. This mine shows up rich carbonates.

Mr. E. Toliver has closed the barber shop and bath rooms which he opened two months ago in the vicinity of the GAZETTE office. Mr. P. B. Strubel has purchased the chairs and fixtures and will open a new shop in a few days in his new building on Tejon street.

A correspondent of the Chieftain writing from South Pueblo speaks of Sergeant O'Keefe, of the Pike's Peak signal station, as "an old butcher." He explains in a subsequent letter that he wrote "old batchelor." The correspondent was wrong in either case for Sergeant O'Keefe is neither an old butcher nor an old batchelor, but a model Benedict.

Personal.

Mr. E. D. Peterson, of Philadelphia, is registered at the Springs hotel.

Mr. E. D. Webster, internal revenue inspector of New York, is a guest at the National hotel.

General G. T. Seal, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Bessie Seal, have apartments at the Springs hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Covert and the Misses Covert left yesterday for Twin Lakes, where they will spend the summer.

Among the prominent arrivals at the Springs Hotel yesterday were Mr. L. R. Norton and wife, Mr. G. V. Harvey and Mr. J. S. Van Nortwick, of Chicago.

Lieutenant H. H. C. Dunwoody, of the meteorological department of the chief signal office at Washington, is registered at the Springs hotel. Lieutenant Dunwoody is on a tour of inspection of the various signal offices in the west.

Among the arrivals at the Beebee house yesterday was the following distinguished party of tourists from Indiana. Mr. W. R. McKean, president of the Vandalia railroad company of Terre Haute, the Hon. M. A. Downing, general manager of the belt, road and stock yard company, of Indianapolis; Mr. E. F. Claypoole, secretary and treasurer of the Vandalia company, of Indianapolis and Mr. B. F. Claypoole, of Connersville. The party intend to visit all the resorts and principal mining towns in Colorado.

Base Ball.

The first game of base ball that has taken place in the city for some time was played on the ground in front of the Union School building yesterday afternoon, between the College boys and a picked nine. The College boys were dressed in the new uniforms of white and blue and made a very fine appearance. As for the game it was a poorly contested one and displayed a lack of practice on the part of both nines.

The game was discontinued at the end of the fifth inning, the result of the score being 17 to 13 in favor of the College boys. There is sufficient material in this city for the organization of two good nines and there is no reason why we should not have some interesting games of ball.

July Races.

The races on the fair grounds next week under the auspices of the Colorado Springs Trotting and Running association give promise of proving very interesting to the lovers of good horses. We learn from Mr. M. C. Wilbur, the secretary of the association, that the entries for the races will close on the 27th of July instead of the 23d, thus giving horsemen more time to bring forward their stock.

All the noted horses which were present at the Leadville races will be present at the meeting in this city, and some lively trotting and running are assured. Mr. M. C. Wilbur has the well known California trotter "Gray Steel," and will trot him at the meeting which opens on the 29th inst. and continues for three days. "Ella Rowett," the great runner at the St. Louis running meetings, will also be present and will be entered for the races. Other trotters and runners of excellent records will be on hand to make this meeting one of the most interesting ever held in Colorado Springs.

That Manitou Robbery.

Yesterday's issue of the Denver Tribune and News contained a highly exaggerated account of the robbery of a large amount of money and jewelry from General Grant's apartments at the Beebee house, Manitou. The GAZETTE refrained from making any mention of the fact as the matter had been placed in the hands of the officers for investigation and they requested that it be kept as quiet as possible in order to better facilitate the attempts to capture the perpetrators of the robbery.

The exact loss sustained by General Grant was $239 instead of $400 as stated in the Denver papers. No jewelry or valuables belonging to the ladies were taken. The room was entered from the roof of the veranda while the general was asleep and not during the reception of the press association in the parlor as the account in the papers stated. The officers have not arrived at any conclusion as to who committed the robbery although they have some clue in their possession that may lead to the arrest of the perpetrator.

Too Lazy to Work.

The Elk Mountain Bonanza, published in Gothic and edited by Willis Sweet, late of the Mountaineer, says: "One of our exchanges says that many footsore pilgrims are now wending their way back from Gunnison county, disgusted with the prospects, and deceived by the seductive reports concerning this Eldorado. That is not strange. As a matter of fact, however, there are not so many pilgrims leaving this country as our contemporary may suppose, or lead the outside world to believe. It would be marvelous if some were not leaving. Many came here, no doubt, thoroughly imbued with the notion that all they would have to do to be able to buy a car load of government bonds next fall would be to sit on the mountain side and whistle, or play draw poker for the drinks. There are men who will not stay in a country where it is work or starve. They will walk out first. This is a country where men must work. Money is made here by legitimate "rustling;" it is not picked up in the streets, nor are there pillars of silver cropping out of the mountain sides to indicate the location of leads. The sluggard will starve in the Elk Mountains, hence he walks out."

Judge Bowen's Bonanza.

We find the following concerning Judge Bowen's mines in the San Juan Prospector: "Judge Bowen started the San Juan Consolidated Mill, Wednesday on Ida ore. We shall expect to hear of a fine clean-up if everything works well as the ore is from the Ida tunnel and is immensely rich. Bowen has a force of sixteen men hard at work in his tunnel, besides others at various other kinds of work around the mill. The tunnel is in 200 feet, and the ore grows richer. While drifting on a large cross vein, the workmen struck an immensely rich body of ore, Monday. Judge Bowen is highly elated, as well he may be, and everyone in the camp wears a broad grin at the glowing prospects and universally express the opinion that Judge Bowen is a trump."

A Young Prospector.

The Leadville Chronicle prints the following characteristic story of life in the carbonate camp: "A young lady who is teaching school in an eastern state and is spending her vacation with relatives in Leadville, was approached by a ragged, dirty little hoodlum on the streets yesterday, who rushed up to her with a pleased grin upon his dirty face, calling her by name and hailing her with evident signs of delight. The young lady was at first quite astonished at the unceremonious action of the little fellow, but penetrating the layer of Colorado soil upon his beaming countenance, she suddenly recognized in him a former scholar whom she had often been called upon to trounce severely for misdemeanors. She shook hands with him and asked him what had brought him out to that distant place, the reply being that he had run away from home and was here on a prospecting tour. Before she could learn more the little scamp dashed down the street at his fastest gait beyond the reach of her voice. He was not over ten or eleven years old."

The "Health Office" is the name of a saloon recently opened in Pueblo.

Out West.

Rosita returns taxable property to the amount of $250,000.

The Colorado Chieftain says that the Fontine bottom looks lonely since the flood.

The Saxonia smelting works at Crossen's camp are about to be started by Prof. Langhammer.

The long distance rider, W. V. Smith, is expected in Denver shortly to ride a hundred mile match.

The Hotel Glenarm of Denver has been changed from the "European" to the "American" plan.

The Cheyenne Leader says that a tenderfoot, while visiting one of the neighboring ranches leaned temporarily against the rear end of a fresh broncho.

A Boulder woman turned the garden hose upon two patient tramps last week. As she did so she remarked, "You may be a bold man but I am a Boulder woman."

Mr. Matthew Lynch, who was killed last week in New Mexico by a falling tree, left an estate of over $4,000,000. His fortune was made by the discovery of the Aztec mines, which yielded $60,000 a month.

We find the following in the Greeley Sun: "A bed of coal, of superior quality, six feet and four inches in thickness, was discovered several months ago near the Boulder Valley Mine, at Erie, and D. Briggs is sinking a working shaft to it, at a depth of 70 feet. This vein is free from slate and will be easily worked."

The Longmont Ledger says: "The long continued dry weather has been very damaging indeed to the stock interests of the country. Herd after herd has been compelled to leave, until the question of the beef supply is becoming quite serious. There is none to be had on the valley, and our dependence rests upon the small herds in the mountains. For the last year there has been very little first-class beef offered for sale in Longmont."

The Register-Call says: "The full capacity of the Bobtail mine—125 stamps are now running, the last section of 25 stamps have been started up. The large sized breast water wheel now drives a portion of the stamps. The wheel is one of the best ever constructed in the country, the brackets are of iron, and it is claimed they are much better and more economical than the wooden ones. The mill now has a capacity of crushing 125 tons per day."

The estimated value of the ranch production in South Park was in 1879, $139,740, and this product was turned off of 134 ranches, thus showing an average of a little over $1,000 for each ranch. The total number of cattle said to be grazing in the South Park is estimated at 19,815 head, worth $29,225. Last year there were 4,914 tons of hay cut in the park and the crop averaged about three fifths of a ton to the acre for all the ground cut over. The total population of Fairplay, including sixty-three Chinamen, is 515; of Alma, 471, showing but a slight difference in the white population of the two towns. According to the estimate made from several hundred names there are 1,500 legal voters in the county, supposing they are all, or nearly all, naturalized.

The Denver Tribune says: "As the result of several informal meetings of gentlemen of this city for the purpose of effecting a gentleman's social organization, the Denver Club was formed last evening at the Windsor hotel, the following board of directors being elected: D. H. Moffat, Jr., G. W. Clayton, W. S. Cheesman, James Duff, Richard Pearce, John L. Routt, A. H. Jones, John W. Savin, Hugh Butler, H. R. Wolcott, E. W. Rollins, Moses Hallett and James Archer. Among the other gentlemen who became members of the club were N. P. Hill, W. G. Fisher, E. F. Bishop, E. O. Wolcott, G. W. Young, Charles J. Berlin, J. H. Sparks, D. A. Gage and Amos Steck. A suite of four rooms have been leased at the Windsor for six months, wherein the meetings of the club will be held. In the meantime, if considered desirable, a club house will be erected or suitable quarters rented."

Young Kit Carson.

The Denver Tribune prints the following concerning the son of the great scout and Indian fighter: "Kit Carson, in early days renowned for his Indian escapades, has been out on a visit to the scenes of his youth. Having turned Christian, as he terms it, he now prefers to live in the orthodox manner, and above all, "maintain a cleanly exterior." He has been personally inspecting some of his mining claims in the North Park section, located in the days when that region was a terra incognita. The mines, he concludes are of great promise. He still maintains his abstemious views, and declares that he never tasted liquid, other than water, till a couple of years ago. Since that time he has ventured upon such additional exciting stimulants as milk, tea and coffee but no intoxicant has as yet crossed his lips, nor seems likely to. He deeply inveighs against the abuses of liquor practiced by his late comrades. Stanley, the great African traveler, Carson says, has forgotten him, though Kit remembers the time when, dead broke, they both clipped sheep in New Mexico at two cents a head. After this they together took a turn at teaming between Salt Lake City and Ogden at a monthly remuneration of $10. Kit Carson now poses as an actor, and in the kindred capacity of showman, in company of Captain Paul Boynton, he is on the point of starting for Europe with a number of friendly Indians, skilled in the arts practiced by the noble red man. He expects to present his vagabond crew before the nobility of Europe."

Mining Notes.

The taxable property of Rosita according to assessor's returns is one quarter of a million dollars.

Game Ridge still holds her place as one of the richest mountains in the camp. Rich ore is being taken out every day from the mines on it.

We understand that one half interest in the Governor claim, between Rosita and the Cliff, recently sold for $10,000.

Mr. Paul Georke, one of our enterprising [illegible] Murphy, as trustee for Memphis mining company, the Great Western lode claim for $1,000. This property is situate near the Dirigo, and promises well.

The Hurricane lode, owned by J. R. De-Reamer, has reached a depth of 125 feet, shows two and a half feet of mineral, consisting of galena, carbonate of copper and sulphurets. The ore is high grade assaying from 200 to 400 ounces per ton.

A few days ago a seven inch streak of native silver and gray copper was developed in the Leavenworth-Chieftain mine. The ore is constantly increasing and shows no sign of diminishing, either in quantity or value. The ore taken from this streak is all pay and runs from $10,000 to $12,500 per ton. The mine has shipped within the last seven days over 100 tons of ore. Stoping has been commenced, and the lowest grade mineral mills 92 ounce per ton, while the first-class runs into the thousands. Seventy-two men are now employed on the mine, while ten teams are engaged in transporting the ore away from the mine. [Sierra Journal.

Three car loads of people availed themselves of the opportunity offered by the Methodist church excursion yesterday to visit the Grand Canon.
